THE P.A.S.S.I.O.N. AWARD

is dedicated to any individual in Wasco County who has illustrated or currently illustrates commitment and leadership in improving the lives of Domestic Violence victims and survivors, and exemplifies these qualities; Perseverance, Advocacy, Sensitivity, Strength, Integrity, Optimism, Nurturance.

We invite you to submit a nomination for any individual who represents the PASSION standard services of excellence.

When nominating, please include the following information:

- Name and Title of staff person
- Name of business, program, or volunteer organization
- A one-page description providing examples or anecdotes of their contributions

The Domestic Violence Council in-conjunction with HAVEN recognizes the high level of commitment that individuals contribute to improve the lives of domestic violence survivors. We know that these victims and survivors would not be as successful without the ongoing dedication of individuals that advocate for them. The Domestic Violence Council encourages you to participate in this award program, and we are looking forward to receiving your nominations!
